Silk Spinning

Suitable for spinners who know the basics

Silk

We will prepare and spin – a variety of silks from smooth tops to textured throwster's waste, the long fibres of silk hankies and the super short silk noil; finishing with brightly coloured recycled sari silk.

You will have a chance to degum cocoons and make 'hankies',

By the end of the day you will

- Have spun silk fine and thick, smooth and textured
- Tried a number of silk preparations
- Degummed cocoons and made a silk 'hankie'
- Had the opportunity to buy more supplies

Course includes

Tea and coffee, biscuits and cake

Fibre pack for each day

Please bring

- Wheel if you have one, (you may wish to bring laceweight flyer for silk day if you have one)
- Lazy kate,
- Spare bobbins,
- Pen and paper,
- Packed lunch

£100

Additional costs

All fibre for the day will be provided.

Additional fibre available to take home - individually priced
